

INCREDIBLE LADAKH

(6 nights 7 days)

DAY 1: Arrival and rest: Arrival Leh Kushok Bakula Rinpochey airport at 3500 meters above sea level. We recommend a full rest to fully acclimatize to the altitude of Leh and environment. You can have an evening walk to the market if your body permits. Visit Shanti Stupa and Leh Palace.

Overnight stay: Hotel in Leh

DAY 2 : Explore Sham valley:

Sightseeing towards Sham valley Visit Hall of Fame an army museum in memory of soldiers. While going towards sham valley you will be passing Magnetic hill and Sangam confluence (meeting of Zaskar and Indus river)

You will continue your journey towards west of Leh known as Sham valley. Visit Alchi monastery. Alchi monastery is a monastic complex consists of multiple temples of Indo-Himalayan style with unique murals and statues dating back to 11th -12th centuries.

Duration: 5-6 hrs

Overnight stay: Hotel in Leh.

DAY 3 : To Nubra valley, Disket, Hunder:

Leave early morning to Nubra valley via khardong la (17,982 ft/ 5,359m Nubra valley literally “means the valley of flowers” is popularly known for the beautiful white sand dunes, old monasteries and beautiful landscape of villages along Shayok river.

Visit Disket monastery on top of hill and the 32mtr giant Maitraya Buddha statue nearby the monastery.

After Disket continue traveling towards the Hunder valley with breathtaking views of white sand dunes on the side.

In the evening visit Sand dunes and a ride on Bactrian double humped camels.

Duration: 5 hrs. drive.

Overnight: Hunder

DAY 4 : Explore Turtuk valley :

Post breakfast you will drive towards TURTUK Turtuk is a small village located on the banks of Shayok river. It is one of the few places in India where one can witness Balti culture.

Turtuk is one of the northernmost villages of India and it was open to tourists in 2009 only.

Turtuk was the part of Baltistan region control by Pakistan until the war of Indo-Pak in 1971.

Turtuk THANG village is the last outpost of India after captured by Indian army in 1971.

After Lunch we will visit Turtuk village by walk through the green fields of barley, wheat and mustards. Apart from that we will interact with the senior citizens of villages and hear about the stories before 1971. Turtuk valley is very famous for the fruits like variety of Apples, walnuts and specially for the best quality of Apricots.

Duration: 2 hours one way

Overnight: Hunder village

DAY 5: Pangong lake (4,225m) via Shayok valley:

Start early after breakfast towards Pangong lake via shayok valley. One of the best places to enjoy stars gazing at night and of course the beautiful high-altitude saline and clean water lake. You may see some wildlife's on the way towards pangong lake like blue sheep, wildass, wolf and red fox. The road to Pangong via Shayok is quite rough at some places in between.

Duration 5-6 hrs

Overnight stay: At pangong, Mann or Merak village near lake.

DAY 6: Pangong to Leh via Changla pass (5,360 m)

Leave early morning to Leh via Changla Pass (17,848 ft/5,360 m). One of the passes that connects Leh to Changthang region the eastern part of Ladakh. Changthang literally means northern Plain area and specially known for nomads and semi nomads.

On the way after crossing Chang-La pass you will visit Hemis and Thiksey monastery the biggest monasteries of Ladakh.

Thiksey monastery one of the famous and oldest monastery of Ladakh is on the top of hill in the middle of Thiskey village. This monastery of GYELUK PA sect of Tibetan Buddhism was founded around 540 years ago by the monk PALDAN SHESRAB.

HEMIS monastery is one of the largest and famous of all monastery in Ladakh and was founded about 360 years ago by the monk Stagsang Raschen at the time of great King Singge Namgail.

Duration 5-6 hrs

Overnight stay: Leh

DAY 7: Airport drop (Tour ends with wonderful memories of Ladakh)

Inclusion:

- Cab Service (Toyota Crysta, Toyota Innova, Scorpio N, Xylo, Ertiga)
- Oxygen cylinder throughout the tour for safety purpose on high altitude passes.
- Inner line permit / PAP protected area permit.

Exclusion:

- Any kind of expenses in personal nature like soft drinks, hard drinks and any toiletries.
- Any extra expenses due to delays arising from bad weather and any unforeseen circumstances.
- Any kind of insurance
- Foods while travelling.
- Entry fees of places like monasteries and other.
- Any tips to driver
- Any expenses of any kind not included in the inclusion section.

Suggested things to bring:

- A valid govt photo identity proof addhaar or election id proof or passport.
- Comfortable walking shoes and flip flops.
- Sunscreen above SPF 30 as the sun is scorching in Ladakh.
- Sunglasses and hats to avoid direct contact with the sun.
- Bring your medicine if you are on any medication or any issues.
- Bring warm clothes like sweater, jackets. (At some places like pangong and Korzok valley is so cold in the evening and morning. So fully prepared for cold weather.)
- And your curiosity to explore and know about places, culture, and people deeply.

